Now you can see and it's too late
We will come, and you'll see that
Your last day is your own fate

It's because you're not free
It's because you don't believe
It's because the way you see
You have your doubt
It's because I'm free
It's because I'm me
It's because the way you see
We've got no doubt
The only choice is the youth
They can relay to us the truth
That's why we've come together
Together, together as one
Tomorrow's lives look to them
Ancient problems they will stem
To questions of right or wrong right

Always thought I understood
When people talked about
A life that's free
Never really realized
That all that talk was
Aimed right at me
Now I can focus on the space
I see the light, I've opened my eyes
Got to believe in my friends
And me and our way of life
Your question is why

It's because you're not free
It's because you don't believe
It's because the way you see
You have your doubt
It's because I'm free
It's because I'm me
It's because the way you see
We've got no doubt
The only choice is the youth

They can relay to us the truth
That's why we've come together
Together, together as one
Tomorrow's lives look to them
Ancient problems they will stem
To questions of right or wrong right

It's because
Feelings so strong
Bonded by more than words
It goes deep inside
Starting to see and understand why
We have to exist, it's a scary ride
Try to resist the force of evil
The forces of good we'll make a choice
Remember, we'll always have conflict
It helps us to know we made the only choice

'Cause youth don't question why
But youth they just can't believe
They'll believe when they realize
The energy of life is why
We've all been conceived
Youth is the route to eternal life
