Ohhh
I wish that
This world was one world
I wish that
Love ruled on this Earth
That everyone would try
Try to take some time to show Kindness
That every life would be
A life that knows no loneliness
This is my wish

And I wish that
There would be no wars
And I wish that
No one had to hurt no more
And I wish that
Everyone could see
Only love is worth fighting for
And I wish that
All of us could live in
A world where
All of us could forgive
And I know it's just a dream
But I wish this could be

I wish that
No tears would be cried
I Pray that oh
Peace comes to these times

That love would be the light
That would light the way Through all the darkness
That all of us could find
The love to fill our hearts with
That is my wish

And I wish that
There would be no wars
And I wish that
No one had to hurt no more
And maybe I shouldn't try
But all our faith can take us

Through these troubled times
I wish that
Love ruled on this Earth

And I wish that
And I wish yeah yea yeah yeah

And I wish that
All of us could live in
A world where
All of us could forgive
