Verse 1 (Big B)

These doors are locked

I can't seem to get out

I try to knock 'em down

I even try to shout

no open ears to listen

no one seems hear

my mind going insane

and that is very clear

these streets are empty

no one walking by

I by myself

the only walking guy

thoughts go to and fro

am I dead or alive

do I bleed the same blood

can I see or am I blind

so much has changed

from being a little kid

no worries to panic

we ran free and did what we did

is it possible

that I'm just wandering in my head no back ground and no one here

cause my dream is death

chorus 4x

when I close my eyes

it catches my attention

I know it's a harsh world

that we live in

verse 2 (Big B)

To bad cause I'm awake

and still sitting

staring at the stars

and still wishing

its strange

cause its all true

any lies that pass

really isn't you

distant my mind travels

and won't brake

keep going and riding

to do what it takes

and even if I have to tear through gates

to go through

I know in my heart

that I can't lose

I was taught
to think on my own
and even if I fell
to pick up and get back on
I can't hide from my foes
I gotta stand up and believe in what I know and stand tough
chorus 4x
Its simple to the mind
whats going in the scene
paper chasers and other boys trying to get that green we can't stop it
just sit back and see the cold world notice how it is
and realize what you heard remember whats been said
keep in your mind
dark grey clouds

its always been that time searching for the meaning but its to dark to see
open wide but still nothing
it's a mystery
unsolved like a puzzle
that won't fit
you can try but won't succeed it ain't worth messing with let it all be
push it aside
maybe this cold world
has no meaning in our eyes
chorus 4x
