Chatter boxing
Numbers talking
Silent, softer
Somehow smarter

Voices in the wall
They are far
They are talking
Something, something
That is small, very tiny

Speaking silently
They are working hard
Making bumping
They are doing
Something, something

That is small in the wall
They are fidgeting

Small hands working
Scraping something
Over here
Press your ear

Voices in the wall
They are far
They are talking
Something, something
That is small, very tiny

Speaking silently
They are working hard
Making bumping
They are doing
Something, something

That is small in the wall
They are fidgeting

They want us out

They'd be gone by now
If they knew how
They want us out

Voices in the wall
They are far
They are talking
Something, something
That is small, very tiny

Speaking silently
They are working hard
Making bumping
They are doing
Something, something

That is small in the wall
They are fidgeting
