I met you on a bus
Going to the airport i was going on a train
Reading a book
Taking it easy, i had plenty of time
I got into a conversation, with the most beautiful creation
You turned all of the world and around.

Chorus
With your female voice and your female look
You make me shake and forget about my books
Your one in a million girl
Your the ruler of my world
yea with your female voice and your female smile
You always make me stay for a while
Your a one in a million girl
From outta space and into my world

Meanless to say but im gonna say it anyway I canceled my flight and bought myself a ticket going your way
Continuing the conversation with the most beautiful creation

Chorus
With your female voice and your female look
You make me shake and forget about my books
Your one in a million girl
Your the ruler of my world
yea with your female voice and your female smile
You always make me stay for a while
Your a one in a million girl
From outta space and into my world
yea

Continuing the conversation with the most beautiful
creation
i flew around the world

chorus
With your female voice and your female look

You make me shake and forget about my books
Your a one in a million girl
Your the ruler of my world
yea your female voice and your female smile Always make me stay for a while Yeah your female voice and your female look
You make me shake and forget about my books
Your female voice yeaah
You make me shake and forget about my books
Your a one in a million girl
Your my ruler of my world
Ruler of my world
With your female voice ..and your look
And i forget about my book one of a million girl
ruler of my world
