Haven't heard from you in days
I'm spreading thin what I've got saved
And I've come down from your highest highs
What the hell am I supposed to say

I'm busy writing thoughts tonight
The message sent with no reply
You used to hang on my every word
Now they never come out right

I know it feels like I let you down
But I'm still around

If you can't find
A way to reach me
Take your time

It could be underneath you
Looking up to see you
From where we used to hide
From where we used to hide

You are invisible in this
To caught up in what you missed
So spend what I gave, I'll give you more
You are invisible in this

I know it feels like I let you down
But I'm still around

If you can't find
A way to reach me
Take your time

It could be underneath you
Looking up to see you
From where we used to hide
From where we used to hide

Interlude

If you can't find

A way to reach me
Take your time

It could be underneath you
Looking up to see you
From where we used to hide
From where we used to hide
