Found out
With every hook
I was never gonna get mine
It's a bad sign
When I'm the last to know
What now?
Sing a verse sing a voice
That I'm used to
Is it in you?
It's just impossible

I recall the rain
Watching you become a bigger name
I've been listening to you for days
And I'm not right
I'm not right without you
Could you please slow down

Cause I wanna say
What I should have said
When the world was turning red

When the world was turning red

I could live alone
When I always had a window
When I know
If I needed you to
Calm down
You're the only one I know I could depend on
There's a new song
Seven new again

I recall the rain
Watching you become a bigger name

And I'm not right
I'm not right without you
Could you please slow down?
Cause I wanna say
What I should have said
When the world was turning red

When the world was turning red

I'm not right
I'm not right without you
Could you please slow down?
I'm not right
I'm not right without you

Could you please slow down?
Cause I wanna say
What I should have said
When the world was turning red

When the world was turning red
When the world was turning red
