This feeling is so relative to where I am tonight
If you only knew
You're sleeping on a cloud
And I'm barely off the ground
That's nothing new

You left me in the water
And everybody knew I would drown for you
And everything reminds me

There's a place we used to know
Bullet-proof in all black clothes
In all black
I wanted you but never told
I went nowhere, you went gold
You went gold

This time you're in color
Are you hoping I would see
Is it working out
The words you use are different
But it sounds the same to me
I know what gets you down

And everything reminds me
All of this reminds me

There's a place we used to know
Bullet-proof in all black clothes
In all black
I wanted you but never told
I went nowhere, you went gold
You went gold
You went gold

Something here is different
Where I used to have a chance
I don't know you now
I've always been so reckless
But I can't get over this
You're not helping out

And everything reminds me
All of this reminds me

There's a place we used to know
Bullet-proof in all black clothes
In all black
I wanted you but never told
I went nowhere, you went gold
You went gold
