You say, "what would i do without you?"
i said, "i don't know."
you say, "if you left, you know i'd be right behind you."
i said, "get up??"
and since i've known, i wanted to tell you.
i've decided what the next best thing is.
bonnie and clyde, whatever we want.
we'll do everything, everything.
what am i to do? i go on, pretend be to friends just to
be close to you.
what do you mean when you say "that way, you get me
that way."
you get me that way too.
spending hours on the telephone like partners in crime,
you and i
both know what the other's thinking so we don't have to lie.
both been broken-hearted, both been by each other's side.
held your head and wiped your tears away as you cried.
and when you say that we should stay this way forever,
and just when i think you finally understand,
you start to talking about how perfect we are together.
i wanna hear you say as "boy" when you say "best friend."
what am i to do? i go on, pretend to be friends just to be close to you.
what did you mean when you said, "that way, you get
me that way."
you get me that way too
