I'll take what I can get
I'm not that greedy yet.
I know it's lonely at the top
But you can afford it.
I'll take what I can get
I'm not that greedy yet
I know it's lonely at the top
But you can afford it.
When I ride,
Drink champagne until sunrise.
When we're drunk,
You don't care,
Comes to find us.
We tell them,
Telling jokes takes out the fun.
We'll be laughing when the punch line comes.
Let them drown in their own tears
???Cause they deserve it.
And the fact that what they love's
What killed them, it's ironic.
Into the top of the highest skyscraper,
Climb at once.
Because that's where they spire,
It's where they should jump from
