Babe, I'm on my last go round and I hate to say goodbye
Babe, I'm on my last go round but it's time to say
Since you did what you wanna do, babe, and I guess you satisfied
Since you've got me grievin', babe, and I'm scared to say goodbye

You got me grievin', baby, and I'm scared to say
Well, I've got to leave you, baby, and it ain't no use to crying
You started me to drinkin', baby, drinkin' both night and day
And you started me to drinkin', baby, and runnin' from town to town

You know I had a good woman but you made her throw me down
Yeah, yeah, you make me drunk on Sunday just to play me for your clown Baby, you make me drunk on Sunday just to play me for your clown Babe, you know I meant you all the good but you tried to tear me down
