Well, the blues is on me now
I'll feel better when I leave your town
But some sweet day, you're gonna be sorry
That you threw me down

I got my suitcase already packed
Yes, my trunk is on the road
Don't worry, baby
You won't see my smilin' face no more

You're so mean and you're so evil
You got me runnin', runnin' from door to door
But some sweet day, you gonna be sorry
Babe, that you let me go

Now get it together, boys
Yeah, hey, yeah

I'm blue and I'm disgusted
And I don't know just what to do
Some sweet day, your luck will change
Baby, you will be blue too
