Lately I've been living days and days not long ago I heard you on the radio put you in my stereo but I don't know and though you really weren't born that long ago I just wanna see you I just wanna see who you are like what I'm seeing so far

And if you really wanna know who I am well I'm just a little man you can turn me into a bigger man that's how I am and if you wanna spend some time with me some time well I just wanna know you I just wanna see who you are like what I'm seeing so far

I'm not a Muddy Waters
I'm not a Rolling Stone but I'm the boy child coming over to your house and we're gonna have a lot of fun

dudududududu

Call me you need me you got something good you shouldn't keep it to yourself I'll please you I'll tease you and you don't need to worry about anybody else

I'm not a Rolling Stone
and we're gonna have a lot of fun

And now the sun's coming up let the bottom of your cup go down

The sun's coming up
let the bottom of your cup go down
