Hey, light are my eyes and I got mixed emotions
Yeah, another sleepless night and I get no respite
Cause I'm lost upon the ocean

And I try and try
To lose myself inside
But the side effects keep bringin' me down
Yeah the side effects keep bringin' me down
And I know one day you won't bring me back around

Blue, the color of my mind the name of my explosion
The shape of all the wasted time spent chasing down the line
For that unattainable moment

And I try and try
To lose myself inside
But the side effects keep bringin' me down
Yeah the side effects keep bringin' me down
And I know one day you won't bring me back around
Ain't it the truth now baby
Ain't it the truth now mama I would not lie
