'Cause every time somebody gives you a gift you put a big fake smile in your face,
And every time you get paid for the work you did you put that big fake smile again.

Because nobody, owns it all,
Because nobody, owns it all.

'Cause every time you're fucking whit you girl she has her fake satisfaction face,
And you know your best friend is good looking but you know you're not.

Because nobody, owns it all, anybody,
Because nobody, owns it all.

1, 2, 3, go!

I'll go get a beer to forget what I said,
I'll go get a beer to forget what I said,
I'll go get a beer to forget what I said,
I'll go get a beer to forget,
Because nobody, owns it all, anybody,
Because nobody, owns it all.

Because nobody, owns it all, anybody,
Because nobody, owns it all.
