I still remember you and me
When we were young
We thought the rain would never fall
We had forever for a while
Every together has an ending
Someone is always standing in line

Chorus:

I was trying to love somebody else
You were trying to save me from myself
When you fell in love with someone else
All my dreams were gone

Something went wrong
And the fool is all alone

Back when the time was standing still
We fell in love
We thought the rain would never fall
When I was searching for a thrill
You went away, now I'm feeling stranded
Took you for granted for too long

(Chorus)

(Solo)
