I had a dream and saw your face
That night you took me to a place
A million voices, they demand
To sacrifice my loving heart.
So hear me cryin'.
And give me mercy, here I am.
I'm your believer(come back to me)
Can't you hear my prayer till the break of day?
I'm your believer(come back to me)
And the bells are ringing cause you went away
Come back to me, come back to me.
They laughed at me, called me a fool.
Fools gotta learn that love is cruel.
I lit a candle, and I found my broken heart down on the ground.
So hear me cryin'
And give me mercy, here I am.
I'm your believer(come back to me)
Can't you hear my prayer till the break of day?
I'm your believer(come back to me)
And the bells are ringing cause you went away
Come back to me, come back to me.
A million voices.
They demand to sacrifice my loving heart for you.
So hear me cryin'
And give me mercy, here I am.
I'm your believer(come back to me)
Can't you hear my prayer till the break of day?
I'm your believer(come back to me)
And the bells are ringing cause you went away.
I'm your believer(dream)
I'm your believer(dream)
Come back to me.
Come back to me.
