"Save Your Love"

It started one night in Milano
A candlelight dinner, Italian style
We danced
And she whispered "Ti Amo"

Morning came and we had to say
Goodbye, so hold me once more
Goodbye and kiss me one more time
Just one more time

Save your love
Until I will return
Let the flames of fire burn
In your heart, forever

Save your love don't give it to someone new
Everything is up to you till I'm back forever
She gave me one night of devotion
Fire of love was burning inside
I couldn't escape my emotions

And I nearly died, when we had to say
Goodbye, I want you to stay
Goodbye so please come back one day
Come back some day

Save your love
Until I will return
Let the flames of fire burn
In your heart, forever

Save your love
Don't give it to someone new
Everything is up to you
Till I'm back forever

I'm so in love with you
It's the first time I felt this way
I promise
I wait for you

Save your love

Until I will return
Let the flames of fire burn
In your heart, forever

Save your love
Don't give it to someone new
Everything is up to you
Till I'm back forever, save your love
