Sweet little things - I wanna play.
Cause I like to play that way.
Sweet little things.

I feel that the table is turning.
You're under my skin and you got my heart burning.
You give me love, sweeter love and affection.
You do it so right, now you're the only attraction for me.

Sweet little things. Little things you do.
Take me up so high tonight all my dreams will come true.
Sweet little things. Little things you say.
Make me wanna play your game.
Cause I like it that way.
Sweet little things.

All over me I'm running through my mind.
And I can't concentrate when you are by my side.
Sweet little things.
I lose control - control my heart and soul.
Because I want your soul and all the things you do.

Sweet little things - I wanna play.
Cause I like to play that way.
Make me wanna play your game,
Cause I like to play that way.

You're coming to me so much stronger.
Than others before, you're the one I am longing for you.
You give me love, sweeter love and affection.
You do it so right, now you're the only attraction for me.

Sweet little things. Little things you do.
Take me up so high tonight all my dreams will come true.
Sweet little things. Little things you say.
Make me wanna play your game.
Cause I like it that way.
Sweet little things.

All over me I'm running through my mind.
And I can't concentrate when you are by my side.
Sweet little things.
I lose control - control my heart and soul.
Because I want your soul and all the things you do.
