Nothing. Nothing compares to your love.
Hmmm...

Nothing. Nothing compares to your love.
You're the air that I breathe.
There's nothing that compares to your
love.

I've been in love before. But never like this.
I tried to let you go to escape the kiss.
Could it be I'm just fooling myself.
By keeping the moments we shared far upon the shelf.
I told you from the start that you're one of a kind.
Everytime we touched, sent chills down my spine.
I can feel your tears running down from above.
Then remember nothing compares to your
love.

There's nothing that compares to your
love.

It's deep in my heart and my soul.
There's nothing that compares to your
love.

I should have told you from the start.
There's nothing that compares to your
love.

It's more than my world has ever known.
And if there is a heaven above.
Oh I pray it doesn't keep us apart.
Nothing. Nothing compares to your love.
Hmmm...

Nothing. Nothing compares to your love.
You're the air that I breathe

Now it's the time in this final hour.
I'm back in your arms. So feel the power.
The power of your love that I kept from you. I love all the thing that you do.
Whenever I'm down you keep me cool. To lose your love I'd be a fool.
I will run to your arms when I need a hug.
Cause there's nothing in this world better than your love.

Cause all I know girl I still need you.
Even more than I know that I should.
And all I know is I just can't help it.
I wouldn't try even if I could.

There's nothing that compares to your
love.

It's deep in my heart and my soul.
There's nothing that compares to your
love.

I should have told you from the start.
There's nothing that compares to your
love.

It's more than my world has ever known.
And if there is a heaven above.

Oh I pray it doesn't keep us apart.
Nothing. Nothing compares to your love.
Hmmm...

Nothing. Nothing compares to your love.
You're the air that I breathe.
