And the drummer hits the beat and the guitar sings the chords The singer starts to sing and I move a little bit closer I made a promise to myself never to go near you again
I said I will go anywhere but there

It's now or never I cannot choose not to May I dance with you may I hold you close may I touch your breast
and make love to you May I make a terrible mistake with you may I make a wonderful mistake with you
I said I will go anywhere but there

Oh, I recognize the smell and I recognize this voice and I recognize this breath but I don't recognize this choice Made a promise to myself
never to go near you again
I said I will go anywhere but there

It's now or never I cannot choose not to
May I dance with you
may I hold you close
and make love to you
May I make a terrible mistake with you
may I make a wonderful mistake with you
I said I will go anywhere but there
