Your so sweet you caused me caries.
Dr Phil says 'Choose your conflicts' and you agree.
Dr Phil says 'Choose your conflicts'.
So you weigh them in your hands and then you shut
your mouth.

It's too late now isn't it?
I know it's such a waste but still I waste you.
It's such a burden, Lilly. No matter what I do I can't make it up to you.

And if you knew how good you are you would not stand beside me.
So choose your conflicts, Lilly. 'Cause I need you to stand beside me.

So play the record now, Lilly.
Words can't save me, so lets not pretend.
So play the record and turn it up. Not even Dr Phil can save me now.

And when the tears appear when it tears me apart I cannot help but dance.
When the tears appear when it tears me apart I cannot help but smile.
So turn it up now. Turn it up now I want to cannot help but smile
