You found the drag queen. There's a finder's fee for you
You figured out where she is now, and what she's been through.
What she looks like and what's turning her on.
You were devastated all the time she was gone.

I'm gonna concentrate on you my love.
She's not my lover but she occupies a part of my heart.
I've never been in love with her but I love her art
She sure would understand if it's time to depart.
I'm gonna concentrate on you my love.
(My love) my love, (my love) my love.

All the lonely men she kissed, all the comfort she supplied.
All the money that she made and the positions she tried.
She want a closure, she want a "case is dismissed".
She missed the way you kissed her and she missed the bliss.

I'm gonna concentrate on you my love.
She's not my lover but she occupies a part of my heart.
I've never been in love with her but I love her art
She sure would understand if it's time to depart.
I'm gonna concentrate on you my love.
(My love) my love, (my love) my love.

She could tell you about her escapades and fall,
But she'd rather not 'coz she wanna forget about it all.
She said "calleth you, raiseth I". She lost what she got.
She stood up and walked away, disappeared from the spot.

I'm gonna concentrate on you my love.
She's not my lover but she occupies a part of my heart.
And I've never been in love with her but I love her art
She sure would understand if it's time to depart.
I'm gonna concentrate on you my love.
(My love) my love, (my love) my love.

Oh oh ah ah aha
Aha ah aha
Oh oh ah ah aha
Aha ah aha aha

I'm gonna concentrate on you my love.
(My love) my love, (my love) my love.
