As fast as you can don't look back they're all catching in on you Keep your eyes on the track, try and stay focused I know since my race is over One way to get from A to B you had to stay focused on me
Now I'm healed
I never knew it was at the expense of you

Now I hand over the relay race baton to you Wish I could throw it away instead I say to you run through Love will lift you up where you belong
Love will fill your lungs to sing along
Love will lift you up where you belong
Love will give you strength to carry on

Anything I can do let me know I'm here like you were for me Take a deep breath I assure you one lap left to go you will make it I never heard you complain you amazing grace never thought you would run this race I will pay you back someday somehow I believe things will be alright

Now I hand over the relay race baton to you
Wish I could throw it away
instead I say to you run through
Love will lift you up where you belong
Love will fill your lungs to sing along
Love will lift you up where you belong
Love will give you strength to carry on
