I used to wander these streets when my head was about to explode
I pass the graveyard where I thought I'd lie by now I kick the autumn leaves and I smile 'cause of the things you said to me tonight I said goodnight to you you said goodnight to me and I said "Do you think that things will turn out right Lily?"
and you said "Yes, I think that everything is gonna be alright someday somehow"

I'd like to show you these streets
I'd like to go New York with you I'd like to wrap my arms around you and say that "I hope so too" when you say "Yes, I think that everything is gonna be alright someday somehow"

Come gather 'round people, scared people just like me Come addicts and misfits come all ages now Come prostitutes and hobo's and listen to what she has to say She says everything is gonna be alright someday oh listen now she says "Yes, I think that everything is gonna be alright someday somehow"

Someday somehow
She says "Yes, I think that everything is gonna be alright someday somehow"
