Good memories of time gone by
Sweet friendships that never die
Will always be there when you grow tired
Don't swim against the current
Because your arms will grow tired
Just float there and let the water pass the time

Cus' you never know what life throws at you
So don't tell me that you know the secret
Cus' you don't know me and I don't know you
Yeah, I'll tell you when I get there
And if I knew, I'd be lying too

Well preachers preach and liars lie
Burglars steal and smokers get high
They're not better or worse than you or I
Ya don't swim against the current
Because your arms will grow tired
Just float there and let the water pass the time

Cus' you never know what life throws at you
So don't tell me that you know the secret
Cus' you don't know me and I don't know you
Yeah, I'll tell you when I get there
And if I knew, well I'd be lying too

And don't give up on anything
Cus' I need you around here for a while
And don't give in to anything
Just forget about it out and smile

It's been two years since he's gone
I write these words
I sing this song
Some preacher says he knows what's going on

Cus' you never know what life throws at you
Yea don't tell me that you know some secret
Cus' you don't know me and I don't know you
Yeah, I'll tell you when I get there
Well if I knew, I'd be lying too
I'd be lying too

I'd be lying too
I'd be lying
