I walked into an elevator and you walked into a wall
You said you wanted to be with me
I never dreamed I had it all
But something changed that day inside me
And I believe it changed inside you too

Yeah, Angelina, can you feel it?
Watching angels as they're dancing up above
Angelina, what's come between us
Could it be the magic and the mystery of love?

They all said we'd never make it
Two crazy panthers on the prowl
They said we would only fake it for a while
But we just looked at them and growled
You were massed and tied an' cut and weary

But I said, that's okay, you can be a girl
Yeah, Angelina, can you feel it?
Watching angels as they're dancing up above
Angelina, what's come between us
Could it be the magic and the mystery of love?

This ain't no chance we're taking
It's a real love that we're making Blindfolds off and now we see yeah, we see, Angelina, oh Angelina

Yeah, Angelina, can you feel it?
Watching angels as they're dancing up above
Angelina, what's come between us
Could it be the magic and the mystery of love?

Angelina, what's come between us
Could it be the magic and the mystery of love?
Could it be the magic and the mystery of love?
Angelina
