If you want my love, you got it
A little something from above, tell me if you want it But don't you leave me waiting, it don't matter where you are There ain't nobody hiding, no matter how near or far
you are
I'd pull the world apart, just to get a glimpse One lie was all it took, I've missed you ever since, so get ready Oooh, we're gonna take this town, oooh, we're gonna tear it down
And anywhere I go, baby, I see you I gotta let you know, ooh darlin', just how much I need ya
This time I'm gonna find you, you gotta know how much I care
So take a look behind you, you'll see me everywhere, right there
I'm gonna do about anything to see your face again And I'm gonna take this place apart, I'll find you in the end, so get ready Oooh, we're gonna take this town, oooh, we're gonna tear it down, I said Yeah, we're gonna take this town, baby I know, we're gonna tear it down

(solo)

Oooh, we're gonna take this town, gonna tear it down, yeah, oh yeah - watch me Oooh, we're gonna take this town, oooh, we're gonna
tear it down
Yeah, we're gonna take this town, baby I know, we're gonna tear it down...
