I know a place where you can get the feeling
Everything is all right
You can feel the love with a beat
Working on you all night, you can see the clear light

You can learn to fly, you will never crawl
'Cause the grass is always greener
It's on the other side of the sun
My love is always sweeter
It's on the other side of the sun
Bring you to the sunshine
Bring you to the sunshine
Let me bring you to the sunshine today
Let's fly away

I know a place where the dreams that you've been dreaming
Come back on, you will know
You'll eat yourself a cookie here
And the taste that we crawl, the taste that form

You can learn to fly, you will never crawl
'Cause the grass is always greener
It's on the other side of the sun
My love is always sweeter
It's on the other side of the sun
Let me bring you to the sunshine
Let me bring you to the sunshine
Let me bring you to the sunshine today
Let's fly away
