Written by William M. Joel

She walks with a grace of a lion
Her eyes are the color of a shade gleam
She takes her pleasure in the nighttime
Absolutely unconcerned about anything

I'll tell you
She's a cat and she just don't care
Look around and she's everywhere
She's a cat and she takes her time

No no no no n-no no

Her world is the only little kind
And to mingle the porcelain in a scent
She goes where the birds hang out
Stepping soft and so they won't become a lot

I'll tell you
She's a cat and she frees the wind
You never know what kind of trouble she's in
She's a cat
Rest assured that she doesn't need you

No no no no n-no no
N-no no n-no n-no no
My my my my-my my-my my-my my

[2:29] *chuckle* Yeah.

She walks with a grace of a lion
Her eyes are the color of a shade gleam
She takes her pleasure in the nighttime
Absolutely unconcerned about anything

And, whoa, I'll tell you
She's a cat and she just don't care
Look around and she's everywhere
She's a cat and she takes her time

No no no no n-no no
N-no no n-no n-no no
My my my my-my my-my my-my my
