Four o'clock in the morning and the two is on the ground
Four o'clock in the morning, there's a mist that's all around
As the time that I like best to walk around about the town
And I rave onto the morning for the solid tune I've found

Four o'clock in the morning, I can dig into my mind Four o'clock in the morning, I'm surprised that war I find
'Cause I'm walking on the cobblestones, I feel the world is mine
And I rave on to the morning for this little slice of time

Four o'clock in the morning, four o'clock in the morning
I can escape to a world of my own where I can be alone

Four o'clock in the morning, there's a hush I can't ignore Four o'clock in the morning, and I'm headed out the door
And I'm stepping out to see a world that no one seen before
And I rave on to the morning when the world holds something more

Four o'clock in the morning (four o'clock in the morning)
Four o'clock in the morning (four o'clock in the morning)
Four o'clock in the morning (four o'clock in the morning)
Four o'clock in the morning (four o'clock in the morning)
Four o'clock in the morning (four o'clock in the morning)
