What would the neighbors say
If they could take the walls away
See you naked with a whip in your hand
What would your friends all do
If they could look inside of you
See your pretty face conceals a beast within
Don't make a bet unless you're sure you can cover it
Don't light a fire if you're afraid to watch it burn
I bet that pretty ring you wear upon your finger
Has left it's share of scars on the backs of many, many men ...

Chorus

Don't count your money if you're gonna spend all of it
Don't hunt for happiness if you're afraid to make the kill
You have a way of making money vanish overnight
It doesn't scare me, it's an entertaining skill ...

What would the neighbors say
If they could take the walls away
See you naked with a whip in your hand
What would your friends all do
If they could look inside of you
See your pretty face conceals a beast within
