Move in from the cold
Don't look so alone
Draw up to this fire
Warm your bones
There's always room for you
In a place where your troubles are shared
A place where your troubles are halved
A place where your worries go easy
And should you ever need me

I'll be there
You'll be there
We'll be there together
Forever in a heart of dreams
To live on
A heart of dreams
To live on reborn

Left out in the cold
Left with spirits low
Draw up to the fire
Warm your bones
