

Billy Ray Cyrus

"The Freebird Fell"

Visit "The Freebird Fell" on MotoLyrics.com

I was just a teenage boy on my way to school
Mama made it me for me as I turned on to me
Details too uncertain as I put on my shoe
It wasn't the shoe what I put, but I knew I had the blues

'Cause that's the day the freebird fell, oh, I remember it well
When it cried it ran and died, it never said farewell
What it'd see in the southern song, stories told, still live
on Ooh, the day the freebird fell

I pulled myself together and I went on my way Missed the bus on purpose so I can walk that day
Tuesdays gone a simple man, a player in my mind
Sweet home Alabama could I snore at one more time

'Cause that's the day the freebird fell, oh, I remember
it well
When it cried it ran and died, it never said farewell
What it'd see in the southern song, stories told, still live
on
Ooh, the day the freebird fell, the freebird fell

Freebird fell

Many years have come and gone, lot of things have changed Father Time's just passed me by, one thing stayed the same
When I'm feeling lonely, when I'm feeling blue I crank up some of that good old honky and Lord, I think of You

Back to the day the freebird fell, oh, I remember well
When it cried it ran and died, it never said farewell
What it'd see in the southern song, stories told, still live
on Ooh, the day the freebird fell, freebird fell

Three steps, you got that right
Ooh, that smell

A simple man was coming home
The day the freebird fell

I was just a teenage boy on my way to school

Visit Billy Ray Cyrus page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.