Oh my god it's happening again
The cloud's split open
Your face undisguised and unaffected
Has me going insane
Lights out
The devil's laughing hard
Fight proud We've all been dealt good cards
Think tough It doesn't rely on
It doesn't rely on Luck
Cold feet Stare and see me
Can't complain Lifes got a hold of me
Everyday is the same
Your life so controlled and uneventful
Has me going insane
Lights out The devil's laughing hard
Fight proud We've all been dealt good cards
Think tough
It doesn't rely on
It doesn't rely on Luck
Cold feet Stare and see me
Lights out The devil's laughing hard
Fight proud We've all been dealt good cards
Think tough It doesn't rely on
It doesn't rely on Luck
Cold feet Stare and see me
