The golden gates have blown away
A dead man lies to his grave
I look up at the sky
Time time is passing by
I'm lost here for the day
These troubled mazes
Never change
I don't want to be your ball and chain
I can dive in the hard way
But I won't like it no I won't like it
Empty fades it fades away
Floored by the consequence at stake
Kept by all your demanding chains
I look up at the sky
Time time is passing by
I'm lost here for the day
These troubled mazes
Never change
I don't want to be your ball and chain
I can dive in the hard way
But I won't like it no I won't like it
Empty fades it fades away
