You've got me tongue tied
You've got me way up high tonight
It's alright
Don't take a minute for granted
Your whispering face
You called me down the last time
I remember the special chase
'Cause every last breath I take
Reminds me of the day
When the sky opened up and said
You're Perfect You're Perfect
You're a miracle everyday.
Stars are blinding everybody tonight
Your eyes have an angel's sight
Your hair smells of strawberries
Your touch is inordinary
'Cause every last breath I take
Reminds me of the day
When the sky opened up and said
You're Perfect You're Perfect
You're a miracle everyday.
You're Perfect You're Perfect
