I can smell your cigarettes in my dreams
Im filling your pockets with gasoline
Maybe Ill catch you in the dark
What a beautiful bonfire we could start
I got a Kawasaki with one flat tire
Gonna fill it with air and ride all night
I thought you could be trusted in my home
What a beautiful bonfire of my hopes
I wish I was a little meaner, a little drunker, a man with a gun
I might just let these feelings show
Wouldnt you be the lucky one ...
Theres a train coming I can see
He isnt quite as fast as me
Im gonna cut across the tracks in time
Another sucker just gets by
Another sucker just gets by
Theres heroin tracks on the moon
Im gonna kill somebody, wont be you
Im so cold I cant even breath
What a beautiful bonfire you made of me
I wish I was a little meaner, a little drunker, a man with a gun
I might just let these feelings show
Wouldnt you be the lucky one ...
I can smell your cigarettes in my dreams
Im filling your pockets with gasoline
Maybe Ill catch you in the dark
What a beautiful bonfire we could start
What a beautiful bonfire we could start
