As a matter of fact, I did see that Wondering what you were trying to prove
Caught in the act in a black and white photograph
I'll never know how much he stole from you
Rubies you begged him to take when he left
I was jealous before but I suddenly understand
Chorus:
The master thief has been murdered
Another legend revealed to be a man
And all the women are weeping
Because their diamonds are worthless once again
Somewhere in the night a church bell is ringing out
And paris is only an hour away
We course through the night
Like the blood from an angry heart
Chorus
Hush, baby, hush
Wish upon your lucky star
The romance has gone from the boulevard
And the danger has fled back to the ghetto's embrace
And this logical world has lost it's magical face
Chorus
Put your pictures away with your dreams and your memories
Just give me your aching impermanent flesh
Let your decadence rest, tomorrow's another day
Somewhere in your eyes is a little girl
Aching for something you never can keep
Just lay yourself down
Inspiration will come to you
Chorus
The master thief has been murdered(x4)
