"Which Piece is Missing"

I don't know much about the things that make you who you are

A couple of dozen stories, some snapshots from your childhood

But here in the dark it's clear that we both have our share of scars

Some only scratch the surface, some have sculpted who we are

(chorus)

I don't know which piece is missing from your heart

I don't know which piece is missing

Running around in circles...running into each other

I didn't mean to let you come too close for comfort

Chorus

Now that the shouting's over, try to accept each other Faults you'll forgive a friend for are hard to take in your lover

And now that I sung about you and all your insecurities

You can take this song and sing it right back at me

I don't know which piece is missing from your heart

I don't know which piece is missing

I don't know which piece is missing

I don't know...i don't know...i don't know
