It didn't take much
For you to want to give up
When it all died
And I wasn't enough

Life goes on
Whether we do or not
It'll pull you in
And it'll let you drop
But I gave it all
And now there is nothing left
I cannot breath
I'm out of breath

You watched me Drown
And you watched me drown

The tide goes on
Whether we do or not
It'll pull you in
And it'll let you drop
But I gave it all
And now there's nothing left
And I cannot breath
I'm out of breath

And you watched me Drown
And you watched me Drown

And when the sky falls
Just as we break
Out in the distance
The cityscape fades away

And you watch me Drown
And you watched me Drown
And you watched me Drown
And you watched me Drown
