There are times when it feels so hard just to carry on
There are times when the days all seem to be so long Then this feeling inside of me sets me free from the past
And I know that when I'm ready, love is gonna come at last Yes, I know that when I'm ready, love is gonna come at
last
Been alone in a crowded room, watched it all go on I've had so many sleepless nights when I dreamed alone
Then a break in the clouds above feels like love shinin' down
And I know that when I'm ready, love is gonna come around Yes, I know that when I'm ready, love is gonna come
I live for tomorrow, what it may bring I live through the sorrow Live in my dreams, in my dreams [guitar solo (Joey Molland)]
This feeling inside of me sets me free from the past And someday I'll find a way to make my dreams come true
'Cause I know that when I'm ready, love is gonna come at last
Yes, I know that when I'm ready, love is gonna come at
last
Yes, I know that when I'm ready, love is gonna come at
last
Yes, I know that when I'm ready, love is gonna come at
last
Yes, I know that when I'm ready, love is gonna come at last.
