I can remember

Knowing you better some other time (low song)

I can remember

Being in love with a friend of mine

I've seen it before, now

It's always the same

Nothing can change any part

I know what you're doin'

I think it's a shame

I'm gonna have to make a new start

I can remember some other time

I could believe in, love has a reason for holdin' on (hold on)

I can remember being together and feeling strong

But somehow we lost it, drifted apart

It really took a piece of my heart

I've done it before now

It's always the same

I'm gonna have to make a new start

I can remember some other time

[guitar solo (Pete Ham)]

I've seen it before now

It's always the same

Nothing can change any part

I know what you're doin'

I think it's a shame

I'm gonna have to make a new start

I can remember some other time

I can remember some other time.
