Hey, the Pied Piper
Piper sings his song
So all you chicks
Had better move along

And get some life
Baby, in your bones
Then I'll see what
I'm bringing on home

Hey, we know that
The old folks ain't too old
They're getting up there
Doing the rock and roll

They're just a little
Stubborn in their ways
But they're gonna
Dig this beat some day

Hey, the Pied Piper
Piper sings his song
And all you chicks
Had better move along

And get some life
Baby, in your bones
Then I'll see what
I'm bringing on home

Hey, the Pied Piper
Piper's rambling around
Cleaning them chicks
Out of every town

And, man, them chicks
Are digging that sound
Picking 'em up, Lord
And laying 'em down
