"2nd War In Heaven"

And there were angels...
Who could not accept the lifting of man
Above them...
And like Lucifer, rebuild against the armies
Of the loyal archangel...
And there rose...
A second war in heaven
And there shall be a dark soul...
That will lead other souls...
And become the inheritor
This soul will not rest in an angel, but a man...
And there I'll make my second war in heaven.
Above
These words...
I say
Over my (dead) body
Of Clay
Touching my dying hands... I'm close to...
My war (in heaven)... to revile the truth of which we'll follow...
And like the first time with fear...
Our souls drowned for many years...
And Then...
This War Shall End.
