It's breaking bright to find my sky
Right on my face to take my
Back to you, dear,
I'll dream of you!
No ' dark water rising up

Swallowing in black words I've heard
Here forever I'll dream of you.
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
I'll dream of you!

My scream's dying and the winter's crying
Oh, falling in dark choir rounds (round, round)
Oh, until that daydream, I'll dream of you!
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Until that daydream I'll dream of you!

A hundred years too
I'll dream for you!
A hundred years too
I'll dream for you!
A hundred years too
I'll dream for you!
A hundred years too
I'll dream for you!
A hundred years too
I'll dream for you!
