On a cross in Baghdad

He was born with a mighty moustache

He had a nice mother

And 15 violent dads

He was a famous kid

He healed the wounded ones

He turned water into oil

Arabian Jesus superstar

One day he was abducted by the stormtroopers of garlic

They put him in a cradle with grass wet from lemon juice

When evil came close to him stars fell from the sky

A star landed on the stormtroopers so they all died

Arabian Jesus
