"Mine is the soul that the devil stole"

Came upon a serpent
In a midnight dream
He danced out of the fire
Drinking gasoline
He offered me his cup
While I drank it up
Ten million voices screamed

Mine is the soul that the devil stole
Mine the soul that the devil stole
Mine is the soul that the devil stole from me

Dancing with the Devil
The dammed moan and sigh
The dream goes on forever
Darkness veils the sky
Fate or destiny
Dante's tragedy
The fire never dies

Mine is the soul that the devil stole
Mine the soul that the devil stole
Mine is the soul that the devil stole from me

Anything you want
I can give to you
Anything that you want
How could I refuse
