Wake up Wake up
Peel back your eyes
Eat this information
But don't believe the lies

It's only in my head
It's only in my head
Voices screaming from the top of my lungs
What was it that they said?

Did I miss something?
A pill is in the hand
Strange folks all dressed in white
Hey! I'm just the guitar man

It's only in my head
It's only in my head
Voices screaming from the top of my lungs
What was it that they said?

Only time will tell
If I'm well or not
I ask the doctor when
He just sighs a lot
& says someday soon
Someday soon

Wake up wake up wake up
Peel back your eyes
The loud speaker talks
The patient has died

It's only in my head
It's only in my head
Voices screaming from the top of my lungs
What was it that they said?
What was it that I said?
What was it that I said?
What was it that I said?
What was it that I said?
