You come running to me
Every time that you fall
I'm the one that you call
When you feel lonely

You will me to life
You make me feel strong
I can right every wrong
& make you feel beautiful again

Just one tender kiss
From your trembling lips

When all your heroes are dead
& all your white knights
Are soaked in red
I'm the last one in line
Yet I'm the first one who comes to mind
When all your heroes are dead
You come running back to me
Every time

Lovers will come and go
Falling down row by row
Like domino's
Like domino's

You come running to me
Every time that you fall
I'm the one that you call
When you feel lonely

Just one tender kiss
From those trembling lips

When all your heroes are dead
& all your white knights
Are soaked in red
I'm the last one in line
Yet I'm the first one who comes to mind
When all your heroes are dead
You come running back to me

Every time
